Claudio Maffioletti – Secretary General, The Indo-Italian Chamber of Commerce and Industry

After graduating in Philosophy at Parma University, Parma, Italy, Claudio Maffioletti earned a Postgraduate Diploma in Management at City University – Cass Business School, London, UK.

Upon his return to Italy from the UK, he was appointed as General Services Manager at the Institute for International Political Studies, Milan, a research center devoted to the study of geopolitics and international relations. Mr. Maffioletti moved to Mumbai, India in April, 2007, as a General Manager of the Indo-Italian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (IICCI), where he was in charge of the Business Assistance, Operations and Financial Control divisions.

He was appointed Secretary General of the IICCI in August 2015, when he revised the IICCI strategic vision 2015-2020, focusing on the following key activities: execution of cluster projects in strategic sectors (environmental technologies and agricultural machinery), Organization of branding activities for Italian companies present in the Indian market, Business Assistance to IICCI members interested in developing their market, in India and in Italy, Management of IICCI’s network (in India, the Indian Subcontinent, Italy, and Europe), Fundraising and Project Financing.