ETHICS AND AESTHETICS OF SUSTAINABILITY
CRITICALITY OF URBAN SUSTAINABILITY

MAJORITY URBAN POPULATION

GLOBAL INDIAN

2008

UNEP TEB Report by Ravi Subedi

2050

ENERGY

TRANSPORT

SHELTER

FOOD

WATER

WASTE

SOCIOL-O-ECONOMIC SYSTEMS

ECOSYSTEMS

NATURAL CAPITAL

COSTS

2008
THE ETHICS OF URBAN SUSTAINABILITY

IS THERE ENOUGH TIME?

LIFESTYLE CHOICES

Risk
Incentives
Disincentives
Penalty

FINANCIAL CHOICES

Aspiration
Living
Standard of living
Quality of life
Social benefit
The Aesthetics of Urban Sustainability

Role of the Architect / Urban Designer

Sustainable Lifestyles

Cultural Practices

Social Expression

User Experience

Aesthetics of Urban Sustainability
पैदल > pedal
peddle
COMMUNICATE
Defunct railway stations used as training & welfare centres; run by cooperatives of informal vendors.

Engagement with the natural & historic precincts, lack of support informal street culture and to encourage show non-motorised traffic as an undervalued railway.

Exclusion of a majority of the city's population has been superseded by motorised traffic in the document and the natural & informal street-based urbanism of Delhi has
CONSUME

Collab: Anagram Architects, Cell Dsgn, The Grey Garden
International competition for an Architectural Symbol of Contemporary India 2007